00:00:25	00:00:56		LD: Hello. Hello. Test. Test. Ok, so here we go. (DUTCH) All supplies are stocked. Water Boxes of food More boxes of food, food, and more food. I just have to cast off the moorings and then I'm ready to go. We'll see.
00:00:48	00:02:00		New Song
00:01:01	00:01:29		LD: (DUTCH) My name is Laura Dekker. I am fourteen years old. I have a dream to be the youngest person ever to sail around the world alone. I was born on a boat in New Zealand. I lived my first five years at sea and ever since all I've wanted to return to that life.
00:01:33	00:01:43	MAIDENTRIP

00:01:46	00:01:49	One Month Earlier
00:01:50	00:02:03	MAP: Holland
00:02:27	00:02:52		LD: Ok now, this is just the table and where you live. This will be my bed. You can't imagine it now, but there I will be sleeping. If you see it now you think "Oh no, that will takes weeks" But it's not so worse as you see it. Every day since February we've been working on it.
00:02:54	00:03:11		DD: In Holland, they tried to stop her trip but there isn't any law to stop this. It's really weird, yeah. They try to break Laura down. But Laura is actually too strong, so it's not enough.
00:03:11	00:06:45			Animation Theme
00:03:13	00:04:14		LD: Okay. (DUTCH) My father at first was like "She is completely insane."

			“If you want to do this, go figure it out yourself.” So I just started out by figuring out routes looking at charts and Google Earth to see what it would look like and what I'd need for the boat. I started to look for sponsors. I just started explaining to people who I was, what I wanted to do, what my dream was. And they all responded very positively. I got things for my boat, like charts and navigation systems. LD: (DUTCH) When I wanted to arrange my school the attendance officer sent Child Protection after me and all that. They brought a court case against me and my parents. And then the media got all over it, and that was just...not much fun.
00:04:15	00:04:33		Reporter: Here's an interesting controversy. A thirteen year old Dutch girl wants to sail

			the world alone, but is facing pressure not to go from her own government. British Reporter: Council for Child Protection's so concerned about the dangers of the marathon voyage, it's asked a court to grant it custody of Laura.
00:04:35	00:05:03		LD: I just didn't know what was going on at all. The media came and I was famous in the whole of Holland. But I never had wanted to be famous and it was also the worst kind of being famous that there can ever be. The worst part was definitely they wanted to pull me away from my dad and put me in some kind of home for crazy kids. It was really nasty.
00:05:04	00:05:16	LAURA DEKKER IS DELUSIONAL/ SPOILED/ ARROGANT/ DAMAGED/ INSANE/ WHAT AN IDIOTIC ENTERPRISE

		MADNESS! AN UNACCEPTABLE RISK I HOPE SHE SINKS.
00:05:19	00:05:33		LD: Of course there were people who say you're crazy, but it's a dream. A great, great dream. I want to sail, I want to go around the world. I want to see all the places and not always the stupid same thing.
00:05:36	00:05:48		LD: After one year of fighting we were able to win which was really nice. Court reporter:(DUTCH) With this decision, the responsibility for Laura is back where it belongs. Namely, with the parents.
00:05:49	00:06:10		Reporter: Dutch teenager Laura Dekker set out this morning in a journey to become the youngest person to sail around the world alone.

			Dekker had to fight a ten month court battle to be allowed to make that trip by herself. DD: (DUTCH) I don't know, it's just a mix of feelings because I'm happy for her...but also sad to see her leave.
00:06:18	00:06:26	In August 2010, 14 year old Laura Dekker began a two year voyage in an attempt to become the youngest person ever to sail around the world alone. Neither a follow boat nor a support team accompanied her.
00:06:27	00:06:31	All filming at sea was done by Laura herself.
00:06:32	00:06:41	MAP: Gibraltar to Canary Islands. 700 Miles.
00:06:42	00:06:44	Day 1
00:06:47	00:07:12		LD: (DUTCH) The last view of Gibraltar. See you in two years! Really beautiful. If it stays like this, I'll have no complaints.

00:07:24	00:07:56		LD: Umm yeah. (DUTCH) What you see here is a... disaster. This is ravioli. And it came out of that. I don't know exactly what happened but... all of the sudden it fell on me and now I am all ravioli-ed. So I think it's going to be something simple today Like soup or something.
00:08:16	00:08:35		LD: (DUTCH) I've spent three nights at sea so far. This will be the fourth night. And there goes the sun. Always extraordinary how fast that goes.
00:08:52	00:09:40			Laura Alone Song
00:08:55	00:09:32		LD (DUTCH): The fourth day...that's when I truly realized that I was away, that I was really doing a world trip. That was because I

			saw the Canary Islands Because at home, ever since I was very little the Canary Islands were something for me that was really far away, something unreachable, somewhere I would never get to. So when I got there I was really like, "Whoa, shit. I'm here." I met some really cool people and we explored the whole island together.
00:09:35	00:09:39	Day 35
00:09:43	00:09:55		LD: (DUTCH) Jesus. I really feel like a mountain goat. we can hardly get any higher... from the sea. And the sea is there.
00:09:56	00:			Laura Alone Song
00:09:57	00:10:25		LD: (Dutch) Others who have done it, the world trip for the record... like Jessica, from

			Australia and Abby, from America They sail non-stop around the world. I don't want to do that because you'd see so little of the world. I think it's really great to learn about other countries, other cultures. That's one of the reasons why I'm going to taking two years to do my journey.
00:10:27	00:10:35	MAP: Atlantic Ocean Crossing 2400 Miles
00:10:36	00:10:38	Day 103

00:10:38	00:11:16		LD: (DUTCH) Well, I've set off. First I'm just going to let my dad know that I have indeed set off. So we're going to call him now. Hi. I'm sailing away now. The waves? They weren't so bad. Everything is off in the kitchen, yes. Yeah, I'll do that. I will, bye. Okay, well that's taken care of... Parents, "Did you think of this? Did you think of that? Be careful!" But I will be careful. Saying goodbye was difficult.
00:11:16	00:12:11			Laura's Theme
00:11:23	00:12:00		LD: (DUTCH) The Atlantic Ocean... The first of three big oceans to cross. All of my feeling were jumbled.

			I enjoyed it immensely, the sailing and everything around me but... on the other hand I missed my father, I missed home. I couldn't eat anything for two days, just couldn't get it down. I felt really very strange.
00:12:19	00:12:36		LD: (DUTCH) Dolphins. Just so beautiful. So beautiful, wow. I hope they swim along for a while. A bit of company.
00:12:38	00:14:10			Acoustic New Song
00:12:48	00:13:00		LD: (DUTCH) It's still about... 1780 miles or so to St. Maarten I think. And I've... sailed something like 400, 400 or 500 or so.
00:13:07	00:13:16		LD: (Dutch) I'm looking forward to being on land again soon. It's just like... It would be nice to run and to walk a bit.

00:13:23	00:14:06		LD: (DUTCH) So here I am again, I just really had to do an update. Now the wind is seriously going away. Damn. And then there's this fucking swell... Things are just really hard for me right now. Nobody said life was easy. But that's a pretty annoying fact. I don't give up. After everything I've done for it, all the years of dreaming of this journey.
00:14:14	00:14:18		LD: (DUTCH) Ok, there's a fucking lot of rain coming at me now. Holy shit. Shit.
00:14:22	00:15:19			Upbeat Storm Song
00:14:28	00:15:19		LD: (DUTCH) Woo-hooo. A big wave just came over the deck and that was so beautiful. And now the wind has picked up even more. Really super awesome! It's really cool to see how the boat fights its

			way through the waves. Awesome right? I can really enjoy that. Ok, so that was rain... and wind. And I think there's a lot more rain coming, but it's pretty nice. Especially now that I have everything under control. Really beautiful, eh? Nobody said sailing was fun. * Except for me.*
00:15:24	00:17:27			Back-story Theme Song
00:15:24	00:17:27		LD: (ENGLISH) It's just amazing. I always dreamed of it, live this way of life. I was born on a boat in New Zealand when my parents were sailing around the world. It was a magical time. It was beautiful but my mom totally didn't like sailing. She actually hated it. She got seasick every time. When I was four, we sold the boat and bought a house in Holland. And then my dad started building a boat right away and my mom just... I don't know... she found

			someone else and they broke up. So then they asked me where I wanted to live. I said my dad because I really wanted to sail. So I grew up in a shipyard with my dad building boats. When I was about six, my dad got me an Optimist. A little dinghy boat where I always sailed in, mostly after school. When I was about eight, a really nice friend of my dad had a boat that he didn't want to sail in anymore so he gave it to me. It's where I actually learned sailing with my dog Spot, which was an excellent crew. When I was about ten years I got a Hurley 700, a nice seven meter seaworthy boat. LD: Of course I needed to get a job to pay for it so I brought newspapers around, I cleaned shops. I did practically anything that got me money. I sailed everyday and always on the summer vacations I would cruise through whole Holland. Then when I was thirteen I actually sailed to England alone. And when I had done that, I was sure that I wanted to sail around the world. I wanted to see the south horizon.

00:19:23	00:19:33		LD: (DUTCH) What you see here is my second attempt at making popcorn in my life. Yay!
00:19:33	00:20:24			Soft guitar song
00:19:34	00:20:11		LD: (ENGLISH) People keep asking me what I actually miss from home. LD: (DUTCH) It worked! LD: (ENGLISH) In the beginning I missed the refrigerator, internet, having a bath, having a shower, having a bed that's not salty and not moving but yeah, I don't miss a thing. About being lonely... sometimes, but you meet like a bunch of people which is the nicest thing.

			LD: You're all in the same community. It's like skaters and surfers. If you see each other, you just connect right away.

00:20:24	00:21:39			Mike & Deana's Theme
00:20:24	00:20:54		Mike: We're picking up speed. Look out, there's deer! Laura Dekker leads the way, but only briefly as Mike Rule? takes the lead – oh there she goes, putting on the Dutch sprint! Yeah, these are cutter ants. And look at 'em carrying that. Look how strong they are. Carrying them all the way across... LD: These are our heroes! Mike: Crossing the bridge.
00:20:59	00:21:31		LD: Mike and Deena... I met them in the San Blas Islands and we've been hanging out every day. Mike, he had cancer a few years ago which is when they realized they wanted to see the world in their boat. Mike: We got the kids up here on the bow,

			cleaning. Get to work, you slaves! LD: I felt just like I had a family. Just like a normal family and I was their daughter. It was really nice.
00:21:36	00:21:58		Mike: We had been sailing with another Dutch couple. Did we get together for... Dutch night? Deena: No we went, we went snorkeling. LD: No, we went snorkeling. Mike: We went snorkeling first? Deena: Because we love sailing and outdoor water activities, it just worked out that we developed a friendship. But I think it's a, I think the sailing community is a unique place because normally people our age wouldn't become close friends with maybe a fifteen year old. LD: No. Deena: It just wouldn't happen.

00:22:28	00:22:47		LD: In the Caribbean I could always turn around but by passing the Panama Canal, I really had to go forward. Mike: The Pacific! Yee-ha! LD: From there, it just started to get serious.

00:23:07	00:23:24		Mike: (singing) LD: Sounds like the party is already going on on your boat. Mike: Woo-hoo! We're almost there. LD: Yeah, we're almost there. I'll put some music on also. LD: (Singing)
00:23:24	00:23:59			Celebration
00:23:31	00:24:27		LD: I am very close to the equator. I have my Neptune crown and I am giving him a pancake.

			Behind me are R Sea Kat and Double Diamond. LD: (singing) LD: It's a bit like New Year's when you're waiting for midnight... but you're waiting for the coordinates to read 0.0°, 0.0°. LD: And now I gonna offer my pancake to Neptune! The moment is here! Oh, it landed on the deck. One more time, here it's going. Woo-hoo!

00:25:17	00:26:12			Dream Theme
00:26:13	00:26:41		Mike: The hardest thing about building bonds like this is when you have to leave people you love. But sad days can also, bring much joy when

			you get a chance to get back together, so I'm looking, I'll be looking forward to that. Mike: So are we ready to eat? Panacuben? LD: Yeah. Mike: You cooked them all? Deena: Yes she did. She cooked the whole thing. Mike: There we go. LD: I hope they're good. Deena: They look beautiful.

00:27:44	00:28:16			'Panama' theme
00:27:51	00:28:09		LD: When you meet other sailors, you already know that some time you will sail a different way. It's like... It just... It's just like that.
00:28:10	00:28:21		LD: I like looking around and talking to the waves and the sea and to Guppy. I have a really good friendship with my boat. It's my everything.
00:28:17	00:29:17			Back-story theme
00:28:22	00:28:58		LD: (ENGLISH) We got her when I was fourteen. She had been standing there for seven years. Everything in it smelled horrible. It was like a ghost ship. But, we could afford it. So we bought it and started working on it. I really fell in love with the boat. Guppy is 40 foot, which sounds quite big to some people, but it's like really small. I really feel like a guppy when I'm on this big ocean.

00:29:16	00:29:27		LD: (DUTCH) I'm on my way to Hiva Oa and I've had seven days of great wind. Last night was even windier, Guppy was practically flying.
00:29:29	00:30:10			Bright song
00:29:32	00:29:46		LD: (ENGLISH) My parents sailed the same route twenty years ago, so I was racing against them. They took about 19 days and I did 18, so um, yeah. Pretty awesome.
00:29:46	00:29:53	Map Animation: French Polynesia after 18 days at sea.
00:29:54	00:30:06		LD: When I was younger I saw all these pictures from my parents from all these beautiful islands in the Pacific that I couldn't even imagine really existing because they looked way too perfect. And now I can't believe it – I'm here.
00:30:21	00:31:11		LD: Every country you come in, you have to find out where customs is and go over to them.

			Customs Man: When do you leave? LD: Uh, Sunday? Customs Man: You go the islands? LD: I don't know, I think so. But it's not sure. Moorea, sure. Customs Man: Not sure? LD: Really. Most of the time it's pretty fun because they totally don't get what you're doing. They ask an exact date when you're leaving. Sometimes even hours and minutes. LD: Which is practically impossible – it's like, not a plane. Customs Man: I want to know on what date you leave French Polynesia. LD: I don't know, it's a sailboat. Customs Man: I know it's a sailboat. LD: Yeah, it's really hard to... it's like, you go with the wind when it's good and you never know where you're going.

00:45:45	00:32:10		LD: I loved the Pacific from the beginning. All the islands are different, the people are different, the cultures are different. It just is, it's, it's paradise. In Europe and Holland, they're thinking only about money. Money is most important thing, raising a family, getting a car, getting a house, getting kids, and then dying. But the Pacific... it's perfect. I only stayed a few days in each island, which makes me really, really sad. I just couldn't handle leaving this beautiful place so soon.
00:32:11	00:32:24	Pacific Islands to Darwin. 2400 miles.
00:32:15	00:33:55			Guitar Plucking Song
00:32:16	00:33:49		LD: (ENGLISH) I was also sad because I was sailing past New Zealand, and not stopping there. I was born there, and seems like such a beautiful place to go to. It was like, like my dreamland and it was there, it was close. But I had to go past it if I still wanted to be the youngest person to sail around the world.

			I don't know, maybe it doesn't really matter anymore.
00:32:52	00:33:47		LD: (ENGLISH) A friend told me about Moitessier, and I got really inspired by his story. He's originally a French sailor who wasn't rich - really poor actually. And he needed the money for his family. So he started doing races for prize money. So he was sailing this huge race around the world for the fame and the money, and he was almost about to win the race, and then he just said fuck it, I'm gonna continue into the Pacific. He just walked away from it. Didn't finish. What I love about the story is he just did it for the sailing, he didn't do it for anything else. He just loved being out there. Just like I love being out there. I love what I'm doing. I love sailing. I love the ocean.

00:34:17	00:34:58		LD:(DUTCH) We're in the middle of the Torres Trait sailing straight into the wind.

			I had the genoa sail out but the genoa is now ripped. There's now a megahole, and I've got the storm jib out. There are reefs all around me. It'll be like this for the next 200 miles. Now I am sitting here... in my sail harness because I could be blown over at any moment. And it is just wet. I really have to turn the camera off now.
00:34:59	00:35:07	Map Animation: Darwin after 18 days.
00:35:14	00:36:01			?Dream song
00:35:21	00:35:37		LD: I had been awake for almost three days by the time I came into Australia. And all of my sails were just ripped and broken down and my steering wheel had fallen off. I felt like I was just on the bottom.
00:35:41	00:37:21		LD: Susanne is this journalist from Holland. She has been following me, really since the beginning. She's nice and I've known her for

			quite a while now, but I don't really like journalists most of the time. So many questions over and over again, and mostly bothering me at times that I really, really don't want it. Susanne: (DUTCH) There was a moment about three weeks ago when you considered quitting and taking off to New Zealand. LD: (DUTCH) No, I've already passed it. But it's been bothering me since I left Bora Bora. LD: (DUTCH) It's somewhere I always wanted to go. I could do it, I could just sail there. Susanne: (DUTCH) So you could. Then why don't you? LD: (DUTCH) I just couldn't. Susanne: (DUTCH) I truly can't imagine that the record attempt doesn't interest you a tiny little bit. Not for other people, but wouldn't it be a rush if you achieved it? LD: (DUTCH) Yeah.
--	--	--	---	--

			Sure. Susanne: (DUTCH) I wouldn't be surprised if you're in a history book a hundred years from now. LD: (DUTCH) Well I don't care. That...that... that doesn't interest me at all. LD: I asked myself, Can you do this?" And I answered, "I'm going to try." LD: (DUTCH) So I'm curious if I can, and if I make it then I know I can. Then I've crossed a boundary. That is my only goal. Susanne: Yeah.
00:37:20	00:37:33		LD: I am cleaning because my father is coming tomorrow. Susanne: How do you feel about it? LD: Great.
00:37:43	00:37:55		LD: I always loved my dad and always loved when he would visit me. He has done everything for me to make my life better. But as a kid it was kind

			of hard sometimes
00:37:55	00:39:04			Back-story theme
00:37:57	00:38:56		LD: After my parents divorced, we moved to Wijk Bij Duurstede and lived in a really, really small trailer. So my dad worked from six to nine most of the days, and then when he came home, he'd work on the boat. I had to do a lot alone - making breakfast, getting dinner ready, cycle to school, do my homework, everything. When I was nine, my dad got a breakdown because I guess he just worked too much. He got angry really fast. And um, I was really scared of that. You really don't know when it's coming. He could be really nice, and then the next moment it was just like, boom! But then he explained what was going on and what I should do, so I got used to it and I got really tough because of it. I still feel like he did a pretty good job.
00:39:15	00:39:28		LD: So there are dead cockroaches here. That kind of surprised me. DD: Oh, I found another cockroach too.

			LD: Really? LD: Yeah, that's my crew but they all died. DD: The crew died?
00:39:30	00:40:06			Soft guitar song
00:39:33	00:40:48		LD: My dad and I had to repair everything on the boat. I had been pushing Guppy so hard and didn't really have any time to fix her at all. We worked every day, there was no fun and we had to fix up my boat in less than a month, and um, it tired us out a lot. So it was kind of a hard time. It was nice to see my dad again, but of course we had the usual fights. DD: (DUTCH) If something had to be done, you should have been ashore by 8:00, Laura. It's now 10:30. Now you're in a hurry after laying around and sleeping for ages. Now you're in a rush. LD: (DUTCH) Yeah, but that's because I have my own schedule... and if I keep to my schedule, everything I want to do will get done.

			LD: (ENGLISH) I've been living on my own for about a year now, so I don't need him anymore, like I did when I was younger. I still love him to visit me and to give me advice and things. But I feel like I'm a little bit more grown up now, I can do more things myself.
00:40:53	00:41:46			'Panama' theme
00:40:54	00:41:40		LD: Two days to go 'till my sixteenth birthday. I think I changed quite a lot. In the beginning of the trip I really enjoyed being ashore, and meeting other people and seeing the countries, and now I really started to like long passages more, just because it gives you so much time to think and, and just have no one bothering you. LD: I love being alone and I guess, yeah. I feel like freedom is when you're not attached to anything.
00:41:47	00:42:22		LD: What size do you have? Flag Store Man: I can go bigger, or how much smaller do you want me to go?

			LD: Well, the thing is... Flag Store Man: About there? LD: This thing is like, so long – yeah. Flag Store Man: But, but it's the correct protocol size. LD: I know. Ok. Flag Store Man: The Australian flag's the same. LD: Yeah, is there one smaller? Flag Store Man: Well, that's what I'll find out for you now. LD: Good. LD: I changed my flag from Dutch to New Zealand. I just decided not to sail for the country anymore, but for the country that I was born in. Flag Store Man: My name's Ron. LD: I'm Laura. Flag Store Man: And you're Dutch. LD: Yeah. No.
00:42:23	00:42:55			Bright guitar song
00:42:25	00:42:49		LD: I just realized that I

			don't have any real connection with Holland anymore. I don't want to go back there, I don't want to live there, and I don't have anything in common with Dutch people, except for the fact that I speak the language. So, I don't know, I don't really have a home. Home to me, is Guppy.
--	--	--	---	--

00:42:58	00:43:51		LD: Ok. So these are all the charts. I mostly don't use them but if the computer with the cards crashes, I just want to be able to come somewhere. Most people don't have them anymore. But I do. The higher the numbers, the more you have a problem. So, higher than 5, you have seriously a problem. Durban is already 8, then going around South Africa it's 10. And even 11. Which is seriously not good. So for October, you will probably survive. But if you go in November, which I will be, you can get waves that are 60 foot high. Yeah, the winds are just starting to get really annoying.

00:47:15	00:47:19	Day 419
00:47:21	00:48:02		LD:(DUTCH) A very good day today. Today is the...no idea. It is Saturday. The wind died down so I was rolling in the genoa sail... and that's when I stumbled over that thing over there Bird. He's totally not scared. Or she... no idea. It won't eat, it won't leave. I don't know what it wants. I don't know what it's doing. I'm only speaking English to him because he probably doesn't understand Dutch.

			He's really alive. It's not a stuffed bird or something. Look, you see? La la la.
00:48:04	00:48:08	Day 425
00:48:21	00:48:33		LD: (DUTCH) The light shining over there is the moon slowly rising, I think. It's like it could crash right down on me, that's how big it is. Jesus.
00:48:45	00:48:49	Day 432
00:48:54	00:49:24		LD: After thirty days, time just didn't exist anymore. It didn't really matter – which I'd never felt before. And it was the best feeling. I didn't really care if there was a lot of fronts coming over, or no wind. I made peace with it. I was just there, I was one with nature. From the starting of being the worst trip, it actually was the nicest trip ever. Just mentally.

00:49:50	00:50:53			Storm Song
00:49:52	00:50:38		LD: (ENGLISH) In the night there were really high waves. The wind picked up more, and more, and more. And it was going way too fast. The whole cockpit was full of water, and like things that should be in the front of the boat were in the back of the boat. What was for me amazing was, I didn't feel anything but focused. I was on the top of being alert. And being scared was totally gone. I didn't feel that I was tired, I didn't even feel that I was hungry. I was just doing it.

00:51:09	00:51:27		LD: There were all these people that just looked at me like it was impossible that I had come in with this weather. And as I finally started to warm up again and to think straight, I realized, wow, that's actually pretty badass.

00:51:28	00:52:25			Dream theme
00:51:37	00:52:13		LD: I crossed the three biggest oceans And only the South Atlantic was waiting for me. Now I look back on it, I wanted the storms, I wanted the calms, I wanted to feel loneliness, I wanted to feel what it felt like to be in the sea. And now I know all these things. I now knew what sailing around the world meant, and knew that I would keep doing it. It was an end of the dream that I had as a kid, and it's the beginning of my life as a sailor.

00:52:25	00:52:28	Day 499
00:52:40	00:53:03		LD: (DUTCH) Hey. We're in the Atlantic Ocean...the South Atlantic Ocean. It's been... a lot of days since we've left Cape Town. A few more days to the

			equator and the Northern Hemisphere and about 20 days to St. Maarten.
00:53:07	00:53:30			Guitar song
00:53:09	00:53:26		LD: I started officially in Europe but definitely don't want to go back to Holland. So, instead of sailing Europe, I'll sail to the Caribbean. As soon as I get there I will have officially rounded the globe, alone.

00:54:00	00:54:56		LD: (ENGLISH) I wasn't really looking forward to arrive. I just wanted to continue sailing, wanted to stay at that quiet spot. I could deal with everything, with high waves, with a lot of winds, with loneliness but people and media, I almost just sailed straight to Trinidad or Barbados. But, I finished!

			The best part was definitely seeing my mom, my sister and my dad all at the same time. It was a perfect welcome.

00:55:15	00:56:45			Peppy guitar song
00:55:20	00:55:52		LD: I really love sailing alone, but I also really love sailing with someone I was looking for crew and I met Bruno. Bruno:(DUTCH) No. No! LD: (DUTCH)What no? Bruno:(DUTCH) No. Stop filming. LD: (DUTCH)I'm really not! Bruno:(DUTCH) The red light is on. I'm not crazy. I was looking for crew

			and I met Bruno. So um, we're sailing to New Zealand. LD: I feel like New Zealand is gonna be a good place for me. And if it turns out not to be, just travel farther.
